Implants as a whole are typically energy implants (mostly negative ET agenda) designed block people from naturally ascending up through the chakras naturally. This process started 1,000 years after we landed on earth since we did not claim our sovereignty and choose to only live out of love. Specifically Crown of Thorns is designed to distort the natural energetic circuitry of the crown and block the higher self communication descending from higher dimensions being transmitted into the crown receivers. This implant acts as another frequency fence to keep humanity unable to communicate or gain access to their higher self bodies. It blocks the vertical communication channel around the head, skull and crown.
